Mayor's Report

1. Residents, especially senior citizens, are urged to never let a stranger come in to your house. Insist on proper identification. If he or she can't show it or if you are still suspicious, call whomever he or she claims to represent for verification.
2. During the summer season when the heat and humidity became oppressive, residents are reminded to keep hydrated to avoid the serious physical consequences of dehydration.

Historical Note

The first town clerk (Borough Secretary) after incorporation in 1850 was Lott Evans.
